Proposed Changes:

Rule II Section 6 (e)

(e) to hold an examination for the position of Director, whenever eligibles therefor are needed, and to certify eligibles resulting therefrom to the Mayor;

In case of the departure of the Director of Personnel before the Commission provides a list of eligible certified to the Mayor, the Mayor, as the appointing authority, may immediately make provisional appointment of any person they deems qualified, consistent with Civil Service Rule VII Section 7(a), except that they may do so without the prior approval of the Director, until an appointment is made from the eligibles certified by the Commission;

Rule VII Section 7 (a)

Section 7. Temporary Appointments: Temporary appointments without competitive tests, to competitive positions, may be made as further provided in these rules, for a period of time not to exceed six (6) months. Such temporary appointment may, with approval of the Director of Personnel, be extended for a period not to exceed three (3) months. Such temporary appointments shall include provisional appointments in the absence of available registers containing six (6) viable candidates, pending establishment of eligible registers and certification and appointment therefrom, transient appointments for short jobs of work, and emergency appointments pending filling of vacancies by other means than such emergency appointments.

(a) Provisional Appointments: When a vacancy is to be filled in a position of a class for which there are no eligibles available for certification, the appointing authority, with the prior approval of the Director, may make provisional appointment of any person he deems qualified. When the provisional appointment is that of the Director, the Mayor, as the appointing authority, may immediately make provisional appointment of any person she/he deems qualified without the prior approval of the Director. The provisional appointment may be an original appointment or a provisional promotion of a person with permanent status in the same or a lower level position.

The proposed changes may also be reviewed in Room 700 of the Carnahan Courthouse, 1114 Market St.
